

evan and jaron, The Distance (Cd Version) the sky has lost its color the sun has turned to grey at least thats how it feels to me whenever you're away i crawl up in the corner to watch the minutes pass each one brings me closer to the time when you'll be back you're coming back and i cant take the distance

i cant take the miles
i cant take the time until the next time i see you smile i cant take the distance
im not ashamed
that i cant take a breath without saying your name
i still believe in feelings but sometimes i feel too much i make believe you're close to me but it aint close enough not nearly close enough
that i cant take a breath without saying your name
the distance
i can brave a hurricane and still be standing tall when all the dust has settled down but i cant take the distance
the distance
the distance
