

Evan & Jaron, How Many Times

I'm finding it so hard for you not to understand that if I loved you girl I would take your hand I would tell you that I love you and that I want you for me then I would pray to God that it would always be How many times to I have to say no a few more times maybe then you'll go away made up my mind not to talk about my heart said no but there ain't no doubt anyway if this is love that you're looking for you got to go knocking on someone else's door the time is right I guess I should go when I see you again

I really don't know (chorus)
what am I supposed to do all of a sudden fall in love with you (chorus)
I'm finding it hard
that if I loved you girl then I would take your hand (chorus)
