

Evan & Jaron, Think Of Me

just the other day
come back another day
something wasn't right
I could feel it in my eyes I always hate goodbyes answering all those whys with its gonna be all right think of me and I'll be there I'm wherever you want me to be
I want to be close to you and whatever that takes I'm willing to do
come back another day
I hadn't thought things through take a look at me tell me what you see but someone longing to be right here next to you

think of me and I'll be there
and though sometimes I can't explain the crazy things I do rest assured your faith in me I'll be right here for you think of me and I'll be there
