Evan Taubenfeld, So Suddenly

I cant be awake
I never thought that I could lose someone
Id give it all to change
Go back in time before that day begun
Suddenly things went wrong
Just like that you were gone
I cant take back what Ive done
And Ive lost it all
All all all
Only one to blame
I wish I couldve found a way to stop
I would take your place
I feel like I deserve this is my fault I say
Suddenly things went wrong
Just like that you were gone
I cant take back what I've done
And I've lost it all
All all all
All all all
Suddenly things went wrong
Just like that you were gone
I cant take back what Ive done
So suddenly
So suddenly
So suddenly
So suddenly things went wrong
Just like that you were gone
I cant take back what Ive done
Its all my fault
Its all my fault
That I lost it all
I lost it all
