

Evan Taubenfeld, The Story Of Me And You

The picture, it was perfect It was easy, it was working it was a honeymoon all the time but the sun don't always shine all the problems, started growing its the flirting its the clothing takin up the bathroom floor but we don't do it like that no more
You want to move on,
we're righting the wrong
Its never been easy,
We're not giving up, it's gonna be tough,
but baby believe me, yeah
We're not breaking, we're just making it though
The story of me and you
When I think of what you first said I'm playing it back in my head We're talking on the phone past 4
You always kept me wanting more So I'm writing in a letter Cause it can't get any less better
The fairy tale starts to fade but the story won't end today
You want to move on,
we're righting the wrong
Its never been easy
We're not giving up, it's gonna be tough,
but baby believe me, yeah
We're not breaking, we're just making it though
The story of me and you
We can pick it up Back where we left off
Even if we get it lost Our story still counts on Chorus
The story of me and you...
