

Evangelista, Lucky Lucky Luck

When I was a baby I was sweet as can be, I had a good heart but I had to kill it. 11 years old my blood ran cold...by 13 I had to spill it. I'm gonna take 5 minutes thinkin bout it baby.

13 years old shot out soul during the year I was shut in the hole.
I received an education in the institution bout how to kick the crying problem with the angel dust solution woo hoo woo hoo.

I'm gonna take 5 minutes thinkin bout it baby.
Lucky thing I'm a lucky thing. If I touch you you'll be lucky too.

Ten plus nine in this town of mine with petty crooks all droppin dimes. Nite time we'd terrorize the dealers downtown and the tricks with their sticky moneys WHHHOOhoo.

At 21 I stopped playing with guns I changed my ways forever.
I walked on thru but my friends didn't make it I guess I was somewhat clever. Now I'm the empress the queen - the king of my domain and I like loud things. I play with dogs and cathands too lucky lucky lucky lucky lucky lucky woo hodelee hoooooo.

If I touch you you'll be lucky too.
