

Eve 6, Nightmare

Blemishing mirror fright gonna take a bit of a fall tonight
Dreamed that I was underneath a naked woman Saying something that I can't repeat
Awakened by the runway noise, suck it up kid
Assume battle poise
It's a lonely time for yours truly
I know I don't need to stay awake

In my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dreamscape escapades
I make the grade, I save the day

Pull here push me there
A little lower little closer to the spot that's bare
That's the toy that fills my void
It's apparent I've inherited a demon joy
It's a lonely time for yours truly I know
I don't need to stay awake

In my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dreamscape escapades
I made the grade, I save the day
