

Even Song, Cosmic Empire

A frozen Galaxy drifted in Nature's amniotic seas a universe of starry majesty in the vast ocean of Space

Black planets rolled without lustre and aim in the yawning dark Void

It was the dawn of times the dawn of Genesis the age of mystery

Motionless stars without name & knowledge a cosmic empire
in the stifling black fluid

The world waited its own birth in an icy, uninvaded sleep And the Great Omnipotent slumbered on the verge of the deep

a slumbering galaxy
A cosmic empire
in the cradle of eternity
