

Even Stevens, Things

Things didn't sit right while you were gone
I fit to calling it ended all wrong
(Things were better with you around)
(Things were better with you around)
Didn't seem right to me, So I wished upon a dream and I said that.

Wishing then would have done no good Brought you back if I only could
All those things I should have realized
I was traveling this town
All I found was a sea of doubt
Cant you see the road through my eyes?

I thought I'd be just fine all by myself only me I needed no one else
(I couldn't have been more wrong)
(I couldn't have been more wrong)
Didn't seem right to me
So I wished upon a dream
And I said that ..

All I ever wanted was to be here just to be here on my own
Now I realize since you've come back I'm happy not alone
All I wanted was to be here just be here on my own
Now I realize since you've come back I'm happy not alone
Happy not alone, and I said that...
