

Everclear, Evergleam

Evergleam and I know why God is good and Jesus loves me heaven lives and I know where sounds to me a not so easy chair falling free and living down stringing out and over happy

it isn't real and I'm not going to break I'm not going to break

don't die
don't give in to it
no way no way no way please don't leave me

Evergleam and I know how pulling hair and breaking voices giving in won't stop the noise spinning wills don't give you choices give away the spark inside you give away the shining prize

it isn't real and I'm not going to break no I'm not going to break

Evergleam
everywhere
ever weird everyone
I won't see you there I'm not going away no way
