

Everclear, I Want To Die A Beautiful Death

everybody here in this small town looks used and abused today everybody here is looking outside in it seems like nothing ever changes everybody they just want to have a good time everybody they just want to forget everybody wants to feel like they did when the sky looked good and the world was perfect i dont care i just wanna die pretty i just wanna get lost in the motion i just wanna get lost in my beautiful self i just wanna get lost in this city i dont wanna live forever i want to die a beautiful death i got to get the hell out of this town everybodys looking upside down everybody here is looking for the same pain it really seems like nothing ever changes everybody they just to find a slow ride everybody they jsut want to get by

like they did when the sky looked high and the world was simple i just want to die pretty sometimes i just want to die i just want to get lost in the moment i just want to get lost in myself
