

Everclear, Invisible

I will live
I will live
maybe for a year or two maybe for a year

I will die
yes I will die
I can rest secure

I am goddamn sure that this thing ain't no accident
I just can't believe that aids is just some act of God

I will reach for you I will reach my hand
no one will reach for me
no one will touch my skin

yes I will accept
I will accept my pain
I don't deserve to die like this no one deserves to die like this

yeah I get so mad
I just want to break the world
yeah I get so mad
I just want to break the world
break the world

I will not be denied
I will not be ignored
I am not invisible anymore

I will not be denied
I will not be ignored
I will not go away
I am not invisible anymore

sometimes I get so mad I just want to break the world
