I know a couple who are in love living in the best of times a truer blue love you will never know right next to pain they'll never realize sheltered from it's loving glow young and happy and so politically correct just get it if you need it now just go buy it if you need it in your life don't you worry if it all runs out don't worry because it never will

I know a young girl living in the shadow of the kind of life that she could never make she takes it all and gives it back in love to handsome artists in her native state she is the angel of the loser and the disenchanted soul

just get it if you need it now just buy it if it makes you happy
