

Everlast, Anyone

Verse 1

I got my pick up truck, and I got my gun, and I got a taste for whiskey and pills.
I know I'm kinda far, coz im my father's son and i got a hole in my heart I cant fill Turn off the parking light, down by the rivers end. this is my darkest night girl youre swimming in my head

Chorus 1

It happens all the time, i blow it every time people change with time call me anytime girl
i miss you oh so often
whats been said is done its my only option girl ill be anyone for you. anyone.

Verse 2

Out on the interstate, i play my radio and i confess to all my sins Been driving seven hours, still got 3 to go where it always ends, the road begins you've got your broken wings i've got mine sewn apart girl all these fked up things they keep us torn apart

Chorus 2

it happens all the time i blow it every time
call me anytime you like i miss you oh so often
whats been said is done
its my only option ill kill anyone for you.

anywhere anytime

for you

repeat until fade
