

Everlast, Love For Real

Her skin was soft and sweet
She wore sandals on her feet
Side by side we fell asleep in her mother's bed
She stepped inside of me
Said dont ever lie to me
This heart of mine can be yours
Yeah thats what she said
But I just played the role
Broke the heart I stole
Cause I was young and domb
And fucked up in the head

Do you want to be loved for real
Do you want to be loved for real
Do you want to be
(Do you want to be loved) loved
(Yes I want to be loved for real) for real
(Do you want to be loved for real yes I want to be loved forreal)

Now down by the river
Taken off my shoes
Jumpin in the water
Wash away these blues
Now its an ocean
The current takes over
Words already be spoken
Tales already been told
Hearts already been broken
Wounds already been healed
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to
Do you want to be loved for real

Do you want to be loved for real
Do you want to be loved for real
Do you want to be
(Do you want to be loved) loved
(Yes I want to be loved for real) for real
(Do you want to be loved for real yes I want to be loved forreal)

Do you want to be
(Do you want to be) loved (loved for real)
(Yes I want to be loved for real) For Real
(Do you want to be loved for real yes I want to be loved forreal)

Her eyes were hazel brown
She laughed the sweetest sound
And I just loved the way she lite up when she spoke
She helped to easy my pain
She stand in pourin rain
And I gave her all that she could take till she broke
She fit me like a glove
She taught me how to love
And for some ass I watched it all go up in smoke

Do you want to be loved for real
Do you want to be
(Do you want to be loved) loved
(Yes I want to be loved for real) for real
(Do you want to be loved for real yes I want to be loved forreal)
