

Everlast, Speak No Evil

I'm in the studio with my brotha the half asiatic
You know the fraction of black skin and a smidget of white
It's my brotha Kool Nick
And we about to drop some science on the this track
About God and what not and the world...

Step up and bow your head
Be greatful your hungry for knowledge
I'm serving a plate full of 12 course meals
And a black plate of of wax through MC's
Sit back and relax
Try to digest the data that I feed you
I'm actin' this way 'cause I'm bred to the color of my skin
Something I take pride in
Still my people insist on hidin' behind the American dream
And it's like the home of the free
And mom's apple pie
I got whiped for the meltin' pod
I guess not
Kid stuck up for his rights and got shot

Yah, I speak no evil (2x)

Yo, Nick do me a favor
Step up!

[Kool Nick]
His world is crazy
It must be sick
Be like Nick
Get ricious real quick
Jews, Muslims, Buddah Baptists
Brought up like the Merry Christmas
See salvation
Every pinch of this rhyme is from my heart
And I meant this
Jesus...Scattered his blood for me
He hung on a cross
You know that story
Nowadays a lot of people are trying to worship Satan
But your gonna fry in hell
I'm never burning up forever
The forecast see no change in weather
Damn', the Devil would never twist this mind with the mark of the 666
Thanks God there no one equal

That's why I speak no evil (2x)

Listen to the story of my savor
And how he gave up life to let us live
That's a hell of a gift to give
Kick it E

Now as I take a look around
I don't see many people down
With my cars...Ha, that's scary
Tryin' to diss the son of Marry
You being lord take the bait
And fall into the trap of Satan
Then your life's over without no sequal

That's why I speak no evil (2x)

Yo, this is weird rhymin'

Strange brothers are gettin' shaken on the streets with gold chains
Some smoke crack, cocaine, and Jumbo fried
When they talk mumbo
How can this be society
I front the place where none of us want to be
People gettin' judged by the skin tone
It wasn't like this way back with the Flinstones!
Some times I get kept back because I'm half black
People can't except that, yoexcept me for what I am
What did I do
Becasue none of us give a damn
All they want is to drive a Mercedes
Half a million dollars...
And live like the Brady's!
But anyways time is winding
Not grinding
I Lok in your heart and start finding peace and love
No matter what your grade is understand the knowledge at hand and believe this

I speak no evil!
Word up
We got my Ma Lofy in the house
Man, my boy Chris
My brother Low-Dog
My brother Bry
My lady T
Yo, we got Shawny, you what's up
My brother E over there
Hahaha, you know I speak no evil!
