

Everlea, Hook Line And Sinker

Get lost again, hurt everyone you can.

This fall will kill.

This song will be my pill.

But for me you are, but for me you are.

Hook line and sinker, did you ever think we'd splinter?

I burn and ache.

Will you hold me while we break?

But for me you are, but for me you are the worst of dreams.

This pain won't leave, it will cut me up, it will drown me slowly.

Why'd you have to leave?

What can I say that will make you want me?
