

Everlea, Never change

When you said "life becomes so simple when you're near," did you mean complications
And I just end up in the way.
Why is this so hard?
Why is this so hard?
Let's find the thrill in being alone.
I'll starve my eyes to the bone.
Never should have met you.
Never should have let you down.
Who will let you down now?
You you said "distances will never keep things the same," and I just end up standing still
Your one fear was that I would never change and you're scared to death that I will.
Finally some clarity, without too much reality.
The final stab at honesty I faked.
You said, "remind me to forget to breath."
A subtle twist on meant to be.
A sudden change of destiny.
Was given and taken away.
Let's find the thrill in being alone.
I'll starve my eyes to the bone. Never should have met you.
Never should have let you down.
Who will let you down now?
This is what you get when you say "I will" when you say "I love you."
This is what you risk when you say "I will" when you say "I love you."
This is what you get when you say "I will" when you say "I love you."
This is what you risk every time we kiss every time I trust you.
I don't trust you.
