

Everlife, Go Figure

Woah oh, woah oh

Just when you learned the game of life
All the rules change overnight
Woah oh oh, go figure
It seems so wrong to even try
But taking a chance never felt so right
Woah oh oh, go figure

You have a dream
You wanna be
The center of the story
Just when you think it's gone
You find a way to keep it going on

Sometimes you fall before you fly
Sometimes you laugh when you should cry
Go figure
When things got messed up
You wanted to give up
Nothing seemed right, but it turned out fine
Woah oh, woah oh

It's so dangerous to play it safe
You get what you want by giving it away
Woah oh oh, go figure
Go figure
You're trying so hard to be someone else
When all you needed to be was yourself
Woah oh oh, go figure
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Not everything is what it seems
It's never just one meaning
When life starts making sense
Your world is upside down again

Sometimes you fall before you fly
Sometimes you laugh when you should cry
When things got messed up
You wanted to give up
Nothing seemed right but it turned out fine

Woah oh oh, go figure
Woah woah

Did you really think your destiny
Was a one way street, oh
You gotta be ready for anything
Just set your whole life free, yeah

Sometimes you fall before you fly
Nothing seemed right but it turned out fine (fine)

Sometimes you fall before you fly

Go figure
Yeah, yeah

Woah oh, woah oh go figure
Woah woah, go figure
