

Every Time I Die, We're wolf

Turn the lights off, turn the lights off
Your daddy better lock up his girl
Say a prayer boy, call on the cross
Cause you ain't got no morning' if he comes home...
Board up the doors, the windows and keep your crying under your breath.
Cause I smell a drop of beer in a ten gallon tank and I'm movin' in for the kill.

Yeah! In the wild kingdom...

You don't live 'til you're ready to die! (x4)

Which one of you sons of bitches is going to make me feel alive?
Which one of you motherfuckers is gonna get inside my heart?
Is gonna get inside my heart attack
Whoa!

It's a full moon, denim is tight,
and my flannel shirt is freaking out.
Run for your life, cover your eyes I don't want you to see me party this hard.
I've got a bone to pick with the morning sun and the first last call.
But I didn't put my hair in a pony tail for nothing so if I'm going home alone I ain't going at all.

Yeah! In the wild kingdom...

You don't live 'til you're ready to die! (x4)

Which one of you sons of bitches is gonna make me feel alive?
Which one of you motherfuckers is gonna get inside my heart?
Is gonna give it a heart attack?!

Look away it's too much to bear, I've been bitten by the party animal.
Save yourself! Save yourself, and tell my baby that I loved her so!
Don't cry! Don't cry, I gave the world one hell of a time and I don't regret a thing except for the times I

Hey! Hey! Hey!

I never thought it would take, I had thick blood and cynical skin.
To where are you supposed to escape when the creature is lurking inside you?
