

Everyday Sunday, Just A Story

I guess it started when I just gave up everything that I planned to do going through the through backwards and it didn't really matter just to be with You

so to give up everything that you thought would make you happy now to stand up back down not now didn't pan out to be what I wanted to do

it's just a story of a kid who gave his life to something better than himself
who gave his life to God beyond all else

I said you're like a brother to me I hope you stand today you mean so much to me just think how much you mean to God and everybody says and everybody goes and everybody hurts just along the way

who gave his life to something better than himself
who gave his life to a God beyond all else it's just a story
story of a kid
story of a kid
