

Everyday Sunday, Live For You Tonight

Consumed my mind distracted all the time.
I cant figure out this world of lies.
She walks into her mind of aggravation.
She looks into the eyes of empty sad frustration.
Now I'm wandering around and I wanna be found,
but I don't wanna lose my sight.
I'm blind, I'm losing my mind, I'm getting behind,
it all keeps bringing me down.

Chorus:
And I live for you tonight.
And I'll live for the rest of my life.

Consumed your mind distracted all the time.
you cant figure out this world of lies.
Now your wandering around and you wanna be found,
but you don't wanna lose your sight.
your blind, your losing your mind, your getting behind,
it all keeps bringing you down.

I say, not now, You cannot bring me down
I won't lose this time,
It's time to draw the line,

(chorus 2x)

I say, not now, You cannot bring me down
I won't lose this time,
It's time to draw the line,
(repeat)

(chorus 2x)
