

Everyday Sunday, Take Me Out

I know that I don't feel like talking right now
But I know that You still feel the same
So what do we do when this feeling is gone
What do we do when I realize I am wrong
(Can You hear me now?)

Take me out of this place
Make me a raging fire
Make me what You want to Cause I don't want to go down tonight
I don't wanna go without a fight
I don't wanna leave without Your scar

So when You find me in the parking lot
And I say that I've given it all I've got
Will You take me, and make me something new Because all I wanted to give You
I have taken away
So I beg, You promised, I beg for You to take me
And just forget today
(Can You hear me now?)

I'm after Your own heart
I know we've wrestled round
You've left me with this mark
Can You hear me now
