

Everything But The Girl, Good Cop, Bad Cop

i don't wanna feel this way.....
i don't wanna feel this way.....

i don't wanna feel this way
won't somebody take away this feeling i'm looking at an open sky, it's not my roof, it's got no ceiling

it's wrong to feel this way, i know it's wrong, i know it's bad to only see what isn't there to want and want you never had
but you know there's more to me now, don't you?
you always conquer for me, won't you.....won't you?

and it's used to look half full now some days it looks half empty and some days it feels like nothing that always use to feel like plenty but it's wrong to feel this way, i know it's wrong, i know it's bad to only see what isn't there to want and want you never had

you always conquer for me, won't you.....won't you?

i don't wanna feel this way
won't somebody take away this feeling
you played good cop, i played bad cop still my roof has got no ceiling, still my roof has got no ceiling

i don't wanna feel this way.....
i don't wanna feel this way.....
i don't wanna feel this way.....
i don't wanna feel this way.....
