

Evol, The Black Crystal Of Astar

(music by Lord of Sorrow; lyrics by Prince of Agony)

Ruins, sign of the past of this ancient Town its dramatic end by Naxyr's Will.

Now it's time to regain the lost artefact

Jewel of the Jewels

The Astar's Gem.

Dark Powers will help the souls of the Damned to retake their land in the War of the Wars

The Altar is there the rite may proceed summoning of

AST-OR-MAARH

By Night

By Unlight

By War

By Hate

The Force of the Dark Jewel

We ask for our victory

AST-OR-MAARH

All our hopes will be realised if our Lord will grant the Crystal to us.

The enemies will have no chance, we're going to crush their faint bones'n skulls

Hidden by the mantle of the Night, the Dark Dreamers,

Aided by their Lord, will have their final revenge.

"...and the Great Hall was filled by thousands shapes floating above the ancient altar. Red eyes stared at the bowed humans, waiting for their Master. And the Master came, majestic as the King of Kings,

from the deepest Abyss awaken to help His poor servants..."

The Force of the Dark Jewel

We have for our Victory
