

Evolution, Goodbye

do you remember, when we were young?
look at the mirror, and what do you see? it takes me back to unforgettable old times linked by an endless thread goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye now I remember, our childhood memories tears and laughter, we grew up and shared our dreams when we were young, when we were young, we were so joined and breezy young linked by an endless train

and now we're gone for separate ways but still together in our hearts

goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
my friend, goodbye
