

Evolution, Like Madness

I don't know what you have decided and where you are right now I don't know what's in my brain it's time for me to get the underway inside a never-ending trip

if I live until the sunrise I'll choose my battle out!

you don't know what and how but you know that it will happen and you're sure that it will come,
this is all like madness and it's almost like a dream the only way you reach the light and the fear, disappears

I'll be alone in this street with no enemies and no more loads on my back you ask to me:
"what are you doing in that desert place?"

I think of you and I'll get in the pathway looking for the light!

and you're sure that it will come,
this is all like madness

and you're sure that it will come,
this is all like madness

and you're sure that it will come,
this is all like madness
and the fear disappears!
