

Evolution, Rainy Day

its a rainy day
I take a long way round nobodys here in town but I got something to say I wanna scream the tears out wanna screamem out loud to wash all my pain away you gave me your smiles in a dark hour of mine you made me feel fine so I didnt see them as lies I took of my dress to see my loneliness

in your fucking cold blue eyes

I dont wanna stay
with a man who turns
colors into grey
when's it goinaway
the feelin' that burns
on this cold rainy day

do you remember the night you mistreated my heart teared me apart and then just turned off the light I showed you my soul, fell into a hole cause I was the one who cried

"now the time is five to twelve to make a deal, with myself leaving you I do not stay but paint the life, in my new way!"

now it's goinaway
the feelin' that burns
