

Ewa Ma, EmOcean

Wild is the ocean furious and deep
Sending raging waters to the shore
You can't stop the sea and put the wave to sleep
You can't tell my heart to love you no more
One cannot tie
Rain to the sky
When it's halfway down
Falling from above
Make a boat afloat
When the river's dry
Then try and make
A heart fall in love
Green are the meadows see how they grow
In the golden sun, flowers are in bloom
You won't see no flower under chilly snow
You won't ever see me loving you
One cannot tie
Rain to the sky
When it's halfway down
Falling from above
Make a boat afloat
When the river's dry
Then try and make
A heart fall in love
