

Excuse Me Moses, Away From Me

we used to think
we could find a way
didn't I say
some things would never change?
Again I feel the loneliest inside no one to dream
about no place to hide
i'm bagging you
don't let it get you down

ref:
but i can't remember
the feelings i had
when i kissed you
who took this part away from me?
I only remember
when we used to share
all those hopes
away from me

we used to sit
in the sunday morning light.
I never said it
didn't feel alright.
I promised you i'd never make you cry

ref.

here i am
i'm ready to fight
to find what i need
see the blood run
down my heart and know why it bleeds
