

Excuse Me Moses, Summer Sun

I still see you,
feel you
but i'm numb
i can hear you,
taste you
but you're gone

footprints have faded like a wave upon a shore and i am craving coz you left me wanting more

this love was never meant to last forever
I know this love i'll always remember mmh mmh summer sun, hmmmmmm mhhh summer sun

so strong it pulls me far away
walking, thinking of what you said you asked me if i'd come if i would come with you i should have i could have coz now i've lost you.

ohhh-ohhhh summer sun, ohhh-ohhhh hmmm hmmm summer sun
