

Exilia, Always With Me

I don't know how it all ends
But I know there's a paradise
And I know that the wind will bring
My heart to you

I'll cry out your name the way I know
But it's not the last goodbye
'Cause I know that the wind will blow
My voice to you

I will raise my eyes up to the sky
'Cause I know you are there for me
I'll let the wind take my voice
Up there to you

And it will sing your name my love to you
And you will know I'm always here for you
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
And I'll go on laughing for you
You're always with me

Oh the darkness will not not fall
'Cause true love will never die
When I cry the wind will take my tears
To shine with you

And it will sing your name my love to you
And you will know I'm always here for you
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
And I'll go on singing for you
You're always with me
Always with me
Always with me
