

Exilia, Shout Louder

I break the rules and I'm alone
Intoxicated by your sacred words
And I'm nothing
She took that step she never knew
No dreams came true and now she is gone

And I'm nothing, I'm nothing can do nothing in this tragedy

Where are you
No answer I'm lost in disaster
I cross myself and tell you
I'm nothing once again
I'm nothing once again

She died alone before her time
A starseed lost in this world of mine
Don't want to talk
Don't want your love
It's my conclusion in this spiral of words

And I'm nothing, I'm nothing can do nothing in this tragedy

Where are you
No answer I'm lost in disaster
I cross myself and tell you
I'm nothing once again
I'm nothing once again

Last rites
Candles
I need
An answer

She danced
She walked
She Loved / she left
This world

And I'm nothing, can do nothing, nothing in this tragedy

(Chorus)
