

Exilia, Without You

It's sweet sweet sweet enough
Don't forget you
And it's cold cold cold enough
That I need you
I ask now how can I breathe

It's dark dark dark enough
Not to see the light
And it's just not easy enough to know why it

And I'm here, and I'm here, just wait for me

While I'm living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to go

It's sweet sweet
But you're gone from here
I'm still looking for you
In everything you left behind for me
And it seems like now
You are calling me
And I'm saying you never left me

And I'm here, yes I'm here, just wait for me

While I'm still living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to go
Without you
Without you
Without you
Without you

You calling me

How can I breathe, how can I breathe, how can I breathe
Without you
And I'm here, and I'm here

2x
While I'm living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to go

Without you
Without you
Without you
Without you
