

Exit 13, My Minds Mine!

Why should I even bother to acknowledge the pathetic notions of = minds without knowledge?

I have been chastised for acting too freely, but individualism for me = is the key, see?!?

Why should I style my pattern of life after those who bring about = hatred and strife?

I would much rather have a mellow existence of celebration and = productive subsistence!

My minds mine!!!

Individuality, creativity, self - mastery...not for you?

Sensibility, originality, responsibility...not for you?

Stability, free mentalities, global harmony...not for you?

Stupidity, live destructively, &quot;self&quot; is all you see...is this you?

Pathetic apathy, christianity, no mentality...is this you?

Spreading misery, no flexibility, lost and lazy...is this you?

So in conclusion, let's ignite a struggle for total transcendence = from this confining muddle!

It seems to me simple, just strive for mental freedom, don't end up = like our parents, tranquilized by their stupidity!
