

Exit 159, Mind Over You and maybe, yeah someday I'll put a smile back on my face then I won't have to take it anymore but this time, I'll be fine I won't ever let it cross my mind and maybe find the nerve to stay and I'll beat this yeah I'll fight it so just shut up, be quiet so I can think this thing through mind over you

what's the right way what's the wrong way
what's the one way to keep me hanging on just one time
find the nerve to stay and don't talk so, so backwards when I fall I'm gonna fall forwards then I won't have to fake it anymore mind over you
