

Exit Eden, Femme Fatale

Fatale
Fatale

Twilight zone in the dead of night
Sends a shiver down your spine
Lips like blood and the look of love
She's the master of divine
"Back away for you will get burned"
Yells the voice inside your mind
But you refuse to see the signs

Like a moth you are mesmerized
Flying spineless to the light
Lost control feeling insecure
The affection drives you wild
Vulnerable you are led by her
To surrender without a fight
The sweet temptation is your guide

She's a femme fatale
Hypnotizes with her spell
Armed with seduction and affinity
She's a femme fatale
Like an angel sent from hell
When she rejects you with serenity
She's a femme
A femme fatale

Just one touch and you lost your heart
With devotion in her arms
In those eyes you see innocence
Never meaning to do harm
Taste the lips they are bitter sweet
Drink the poison blind from love
Intoxicated by her charm

She's a femme fatale
Hypnotizes with her spell
Armed with seduction and affinity
She's a femme fatale
Like an angel sent from hell
When she rejects you with serenity
She's a femme
A femme fatale

Pardonne-moi mes offenses
Comme je pardon aussi
À ceux qui m' ont offensés
Et ne me laisse pas entrer en tentation
Mais délivre-moi du mal

She's a femme fatale
Hypnotizes with her spell
Armed with seduction and affinity
She's a femme fatale
Like an angel sent from hell
When she rejects you with serenity
She's a femme
A femme fatale
