Extol, Renewal

[Music: O. Brud/C. Espevoll, Lyrics: O. Brud]

I can hear a signal from the center of my soul Ignite the impulse of life Make a change of patterns in the Landscape of the inner man

Obtaining a new perspective on life Discovering a new dimension of Freedom

Renewal

A penetrating power claims dominion in my being Leaving the old man to die The presence of a spirit is reflected By the wave of change

Recharging power / Receiving strength Renewal of mind and soul

I have established contact With a higher form of intelligence Giving me wisdom and insight A complete restoration of my spirit

A revelation of the truth Effects the way I'm thinking I am part of Your plan I will let Your Spirit move inside me Like a Breath of Life

I send out a message to the souls still searching Invite the Maker of Life Let Him be the guidance to Complete your life in every way
