Extreme, Little Girls

It's not fair what they put me through Please tell me what I'm supposed to do Why do I get myself in this situation?

There must be some logical Answers why I rob the cradle Can this be love or just infatuation?

Little girl come out and play I got some candy for my baby It's your sweet sixteenth birthday celebration

Thank Heaven for little girls who Grow up in a most peculiar way

You might think she's too young for me "(little girls)"
You know I always say you're as young as you feel "(as you feel)"
Yeah, I might be crazy 'cause I like them so young "(little girls)"
But with little girls the best is yet to come come "(yet to come)"

Some they say I'm too old for her Old enough to be her father Incestual blood is thicker than water

Do what's right not morally wrong Flesh and blood can only be so strong And it's my God not yours I'll have to answer
