

Extreme, When I'm President

I remember it well, I was just about three
My dad said, "Son what do you want to be?"
It didn't ring no bells, but I said, "Daddy
I'm a bit too young. What do you want from me?"

I'm much older now, I'm almost a man
I can do anything, you bet I can Raise a family, now wouldn't that be grand
So sorry, but I got bigger plans, yeah

I get to be anything in the world today
Something like a preacher, a teacher, a baseball player
Those kinds of things, I just don't care
I want to represent the U.S.A.

"(The American Dream)"
Oh, as far as the eye O Say Can You See
"(I want to be)"
I want to be the leader of the country

"(When I'm President)"
Things will be different
We'll start a new government
When I'm President

"(When I'm President)"
Say, you can be in my cabinet
"(I'll be your heaven sent)"
President

First things first, we're gonna change the rules
Better listen up all you boys and girls
Your Prez says there'll be no after school
So vote for me, now wouldn't that be cool
"(Yeah)" Yeah "(Yeah)" Yeah

Now I know there's trouble in the Middle East
I'll spend all the money when I stop the Arms Race
On my brothers in the desert gonna have themselves a feast
And when that's done then we'll start on world peace

"(So go ask Alice)"
Oh, you know what he said
"(What did he say?)"
Remember, "I want to be elected!"

"(When I'm President)"
Things will be different
We'll start a new government
When I'm President

"(When I'm President)"
Say, you can be in my cabinet
"(I'll be your heaven sent)"
President

President
President

"(When I'm President)"
Things will be different
We'll start a new government
When I'm President

"(When I'm President)"
Say, you can be in my cabinet
"(I'll be your heaven sent)"

I'm President
Things will be different
We'll start a new government
When I'm President

"(When I'm President)"
Say, you can be in my cabinet
"(I'll be your heaven sent)"
President

Not gonna do it!
