

Eyes Of Eden, Mother's Revenge

Mother arose to take revenge tonight
In infernal hate she is roaming

Revenge! Revenge! Revenge!

[Chorus:]

Mother arose to take revenge tonight
In infernal hate she is roaming
Now shes the huntress chasing for your life
Mankind has seen its last morning

The time has come now
So be prepared
So long she watched in silence
You using her in violence

No one will save you
No king no hero
Will win back my love!

[Chorus]

Her wounds not healing
Forever bleeding
Long you abused her essence
Now she screams for vengeance

Your worlds so cold
Your worlds so mad
So this is the gift Im gonna make

[Chorus]

Now shes the huntress chasing for your life
Mankind has seen its last morning
