

Eyes Set To Kill, Darling

Don't lie don't lie to me now now I'm erasing you throwing those memories out out to start something new I'm throwing those memories darling
don't lie to me
darling don't breathe in slowly now
darling don't lie to me
breathe in slowly now
darling don't lie to me
Inhale truth I plead
For your my only hope don't lie don't leave Mind set on failure
The road you chose
Told me you loved me
Told me no
Take your time I'm only dying patently I kneel here dying Curse the blind you curse the blind Deep inside is where it lies Don't mind me
I'm only dying
What got me into this mess that devoured me Lies and deceitful actions keep promising Darling Don't Lie
