

Eyes Set To Kill, Reach

Hush don't speak a word about the dreams that i live for it hurts to reach you when i'm down dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn

my dreams are growing into frustrations when i hear your voice (feeding me til i'm choking) my ears are ringing louder repeating words that bring me down (ringing, my ears are bleeding) so hold your breath and spare me the pointless conversation, im running out of patience don't blame me for trying to reach

as you are moving forward i feel as if i can't catch up (trying so hard to reach you) i'm stuck here at the bottom you're too high up to come back down (trying so hard to reach you)

silence your harsh words my dear my ears are ringing of this i can't stop thinking of it (i try to reach you but i fall)

dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn
