

Eyes Set To Kill, Sketch In Black And White

The sounds of sirens are flooding the streets tonight
Yet we are all still willing to commit the crime
Should we expect no consequence?(No consequence)
Maybe our lies will pass the test(Will pass the test)

Eyes closed, Hands tied(behind ours back...we strive)
To cover up(Our deepest secret and lies but we both know we are the suspects to the crime and r

You hands are shaking as they're holding onto mine
A sense of hesitation's hidden in your eyes

Chorus:

I've seen the sketch in black and white(In Black and white)
I've seen the face you've tried to hide(You've tried to hide...behind the doors...Under the sheets bu

Eyes closed, Hands tied(behind our back...we strive)
To cover up(Our deepest secrets and lies but we both know we are the suspects to the crime and r (Pull up a seat next to me and lets face the jury

Our only chance to come clean so what's it going to be?)

I've seen the sketch in black and white
I've seen the face you've tried to hide

Eyes closed, Hands tied(behind our back...we strive)
To cover up(Our deepest secrets and lies but we both know we are the suspects to the crime and r (I've seen the sketch in black and white...

of the face you've tried to hide...
behind the doors...
under the sheets...
but you are guilty just like me...
Should we expect no consequence...?
Maybe all lies will pass the test...
and none of us are innocent...
a cycle of Russian Roulette...)
