

Eyjaa, I Was Gonna Marry Him (Dania - piosenka)

He, he's got a face just like art
Trust me, I loved every part
As if he was one of the seven wonders
But, but when I gave him my heart
He took it and tore it apart
He took it and tore it apart

He ran away
He ran away
Oh, I wanted to be with him
But he wanted to see the world
Begged him to stay
Begged him to stay
Thought I was gonna marry him

He, he was like fire and rain
Some people called it insane
He was a drug and I got addicted
But, one day he couldn't be found
I thought that he was the one
I thought that he was the one

He ran away
He ran away
Oh, I wanted to be with him
But he wanted to see the world
Begged him to stay
Begged him to stay
Thought I was gonna marry him

They, they say I'll get better with time
But I'm not a bottle of wine
Do you ever think about me or not?
Guess one, one day will you realize
You left a good thing to die
You left a good thing to die

But he ran away
He ran away
Oh, I wanted to be with him
But he wanted to see the world
Begged him to stay
I begged him to stay
Thought I was gonna marry him

I was gonna marry him
But he ran away
