

F.I.R, Fly Away (english Ver.)

~Fly away

Dont care bout the amount tears sweat spent

As long I have power to persist

Nothing I will be afraid.~

Early sunrise breeze; How simple is that

Looks so easy; Fog dissipates

Warming sunlight rays; I slowly awaken

Prepare to face the trials.

In the new century; Shun away the past

Whether good bad; Learn to let go

Follow your own dreams; Not as easy as thought

I still need to be brave.

Memories like a whirl pool pulling me with it

The time clock has rung; I shant stay longer.

Chorus:

Fly away

Dont care bout the amount tears sweat spent

As long I have power to persist

Nothing I will be afraid.

Fly away; Dont care bout difficult future

I can still feel my heartbeats still there

Nothing I will be afraid.

~In the new century; Shun away the past

Whether good bad; Learn to let go

Follow your own dreams; Not as easy as thought

I still need to be brave.~

Memories like a whirl pool pulling me with it

The time clock has rung; I shant stay longer

Chorus:

Fly away

Dont care bout the amount tears sweat spent

As long I have power to persist

Nothing I will be afraid.

Fly away; Dont care bout difficult future

I can still feel my heartbeats still there

Nothing I will be afraid. (x2)
