

Fabiola Paulin, Dreamin'

You are always in my head,
but I can't take you out of there, everybody says that you can be the perfect boy for me
why did I feel so awake tonight?
'cause i dream to have you here inside
my heart,

chorous(2):

I hear you calling my name
but is just my imagination
who can awake me from this dream?
and show me how to live!

I can sound like a fool,
but I know the truth
your the one for the rest of my life
that shows me the path

chorous:

I hear you calling my name
but is just my imagination
who can awake me from this dream?

chorous(2):

I hear you calling my name (calling my name)
but is just my imagination
who can awake from this dream?
and show me how to live! (show me, show me)
