

Face Down, Far Gone

Open my eyes, what don't I see
You don't feel real
So you're fake, you're so fake
So you're fake to me, far gone
Fallen angel, so afraid to fly
What do you want, what don't you get
If I had died would you have cried

Far gone, I'm so far gone, I'm in denial

I was there for you
Could of made me your savior
But you didn't care
You were never there for me
Where you ever really there, no loyalty
