

Face Of Anger, Blind Faith deep inside I've been force-fed lies and only lead astray I've been nailed to the wheel and left behind and only cast away now you can never break me never take me

the lines that crack my face are real... blind blind... my obsession drifts away my obsession is my blind faith my obsession drifts away

it is only my blind faith abuse is the name of the ghost I ride and I'm battered and not broke in I've survived it all and never crawled to rise back up in the end

my obsession is my blind faith
