Face To Face, Promises

What's the matter with my view? Is it something less Than you think it should be? What's the matter with the truth? Is there any of it left for us to see? That's not the way it is supposed to be That's not the meaning of equality I don't want promises I don't want condescending words From you You can do most anything As long as it's exactly how I say Opportunity is free Just make sure that You have enough to pay So go on turn and walk away I guess there's nothing left to say I won't make the same mistakes Can't have it any other way I see no honesty in promises you make We've been too tolerant And something has to change
